OUTSTANDING!!!!!! I am in the need of extensive and complex dental work. I require a full mouth reconstruction that will require many specialists. The process will be lengthy and complicated. I have consulted with a number of prosthodontics specialists. Finally, I met Dr Rosen who took the time to asses my situation, outline my options and recommended next steps. I very much feel he is superior when compared to others. I am looking forward to work with him.

My experience with Dr Rosen was excellent! He is a true professional who cares about the well being of his patients. Several times during my visit he asked me if I was ok since the procedure could have been uncomfortable. I can honestly say that I felt no discomfort, and he was quick and efficient.

Visited doctor yesterday for the second half of having areas around gums cleaned and prepare for future gum surgery. I have a big fear of needles but none were needed for yesterdays procedure. I don't "love" going to any dentist but I needed help to save gums and dental bones. So...the calmness of Dr. Rosenberg, enough gentleness to get the job done, and answers to my questions...have reduced any fears. I would say after 2 visits and a 3rd scheduled, I am not afraid to go and get things fixed that occurred during a few years of my inattentiveness.

I made my first visit to Dr. Rosen's office last week to have my teeth cleaned after being referred by my dentist. Due to the nature of the work to be performed, a local anesthetic was to be used. Dr. Rosen was very detailed in explaining what the procedures would be to clean my teeth. After applying the anesthetic, he periodically checked to see that I was Ok, and not in any discomfort. He answered all of my questions which put me at ease as I am someone that has always dreaded having my teeth cleaned or cavities filled.

★☆☆☆☆ by Anon on 2013-06-22

Office management mishandled paperwork, misrepresented status of process and caused additional costs. Dr. Rosen's review and analysis was inaccurate and refuted by another dental professional who is most highly regarded. Dr. Rosen's office and approach feels less like a dental practice and more like a tired old guy going through the motions for financial reasons. Recommend avoiding.

i received a ridge augmentation recently from Dr Rosen. Both he, and his assistant Mary, took incredible care of me. Once the local anesthesia was provided i did not feel any pain. And they checked with me often to be certain throughout the procedure. Dr Rosen is a very compassionate and kind person, yet a renowned specialist in periodontal services. in his work at Tufts, he is a mentor to many young aspiring dentists, and that is a good thing for these soon to be specialists. I am very thankful that my own dentist referred me to Dr Rosen.

I've seen Dr. Rosen for several years and the experience has always been a good one. I have a lot of faith and respect for his skills and judgement.
